

Dear Lord,

I ask that you give _____ a heart to know you and that you are the Lord, so that he/she will be one of your people and you will be his/her God. May he/she return to you with his/her whole heart. (Jeremiah 24:7)

I pray that you would give _____ a new heart and a new spirit...that you would remove his/her heart of stone and give him/her a heart of flesh. (Ezekiel 11:19)

May you open _____'s eyes and turn him/her from darkness to light, from the power of Satan to God, so that he/she may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in you. (Acts 26:18)

I pray that you would grant _____ repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and he/she may come to his/her senses and escape from the snare of the devil. (2 Tim. 2:25-26)

God, we know that no one can come to Jesus unless the Father draws them. May you draw _____ to you. (John 6:44)

May you overwhelm _____ with the reality of your love, so that he or she can "grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge." (Ephesians 3:18-19)

For I declare that "He who fears the Lord has a secure fortress, and for his children it will be a refuge." (Prov. 14:26)

I declare that you "will contend with those who contend with us, and you will save our children." (Isaiah 49:25)

I declare that "not one word has failed of all your good promises." (1 Kings 8:56)

I declare that the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous and his ears are open to their prayers. (1 Peter 3:12)

I declare that all my children shall be taught by the Lord; and great shall be my children's peace. (Isaiah 54:13)

I declare that you have begun a good work in my loved one's life, and you will continue to complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. (Philippians 1:6)
