Episode 8: Hearing God's Voice in Scripture

Many women tell us that they want to read the Bible but don't know where to start. Most of us wish to effortlessly understand scripture, but it can be difficult and intimidating. There are many ways to read the Bible. Let's get practical with a step-by-step method that we learned from Lisa Brenninkmeyer. When used regularly, it can change the way we engage with the Bible.

Key Verse: "For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope" (Romans 15:4).

1. Scripture is for _____. It is intended to give us _____.

Do you read the Bible? If so, how do you read it (e.g. the daily readings, Bible in a year, WWP Bible study, or do you just choose something to read)? What do you wish you knew more about when it comes to scripture?

2. The three steps on how to hear God's Voice in scripture:

a. What does the passage say _____?

b. What does the passage mean _____? Is there a _____?

c. What does the passage mean to _____?

3. John 15:5-9 "I am the vine; you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If a man does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love."
