 walking with purpose

Jodi Dauses is a former ABC-affiliate television news anchor and reporter turned speaking ambassador for Jesus Christ. Growing up in a strong Evangelical family, God called Jodi into the Catholic Church more than 14 years ago, and Jodi's friendship with Lisa Brenninkmeyer (founder of Walking with Purpose) played a critical part in her conversion. Jodi worked for several years as a WWP regional area coordinator. She now serves on the WWP speaking team sharing the story of God's redeeming love with women around the country.
